Christmas Eve

December 24, 2022

Holy Eucharist Rite II 4:00pm

Merry Christmas!

We are so happy you are here, in-person and online.

For those of you coming to church in-person, please follow these guidelines to keep everyone safe during this pandemic:

INDOOR - Masking is now recommended at church services. For those who have vulnerable health issues, our 10:30am services always offer an option to worship from the safety of home. Please stay home if you feel sick.

When the priest celebrates communion, she will always thoroughly wash her hands. She will be unmasked while celebrating communion. The bread and wine will be covered with a linen/pall except during the epiclesis. She will re-mask to distribute communion, since she will come closer than six feet and want to make everyone as comfortable receiving.

Thank you for your continued patience as we try to provide the greatest level of safety for all of us!

OUTDOOR - Please be aware of those around you who may be vulnerable and try to maintain a distance. Our coffee hour will be on the Alpha-Omega patio.

For those attending remotely, you may connect in either of two ways:

1. by computer or smartphone (video and audio):

You may access our ZOOM meeting on the following link:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/82690025101>

2. by telephone (audio only):

Dial +1 669 900 9128 Meeting ID: 826 9002 5101

When prompted for a participant number, touch the pound key (#).

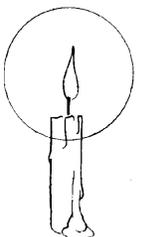

*Please follow the usual procedures for muting and unmuting (*6) and raising a hand (9). Note: For the sake of audio clarity, your mic will be muted on entry.

After the service there will be a festive reception in the narthex.

Thank you for joining us, and for continuing to observe our protocols.

Those attending on Zoom are encouraged to have a candle at the ready, for lighting at the close of the service as we sing Silent Night.

*Those attending in person, please pick up a candle as you enter.
Children are encouraged to pick up an electric votive candle.*

When all are ready, the service will begin.

Angels We Have Heard on High

Hymnal #96

- 1. Angels we have heard on high,
singing sweetly through the night, and the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight.

Refrain:

Gloria in excelsis deo!

Gloria in excelsis deo!

- 2. Shepherds, why this jubilee?
Why these songs of happy cheer?
What great brightness did you see?
What glad tidings did you hear? Refrain

- 3. Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee Christ the Lord, the newborn King. Refrain

- 4. See him in a manger laid Whom the angels praise above

Mary, Joseph, lend your aid
While we raise our hearts in love

Refrain

Go Tell It on the Mountain

Hymnal #99

Refrain:

Go, tell it on the mountain,
over the hills and everywhere;
go, tell it on the mountain
that Jesus Christ is born!

1. While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night, behold, throughout the heavens there shone a holy light.

Refrain

2. The shepherds feared and trembled when lo! above the earth rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior's birth.

Refrain

3. Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born, and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn

Refrain

What Child Is This?

Hymnal #115

1. What child is this, who, laid to rest, on Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, while shepherds watch are keeping?

Refrain:

This, this is Christ the King, whom shepherds guard and angels sing;
haste, haste to bring him laud,
the babe, the son of Mary.

Refrain

2. Why lies he in such mean estate where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christians, fear: for sinners here
the silent Word is pleading. Refrain

3. So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh, come, peasant, king, to own him;
the King of kings salvation brings, let loving hearts enthrone him. Refrain

The First Nowell

Hymnal #109

1. The first Nowell the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
in fields where they lay, keeping their sheep,
on a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Refrain:

Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
born is the King of Israel.

2. They looked up and saw a star shining in the east beyond them far,
and to the earth it gave great light,
and so it continued both day and night. Refrain

3. And by the light of that same star three wise men came from country far;
to seek for a king was their intent,
and to follow the star wherever it went. Refrain

4. This star drew nigh to the northwest, o'er Bethlehem it took its rest, and there it did both stop and stay right over the place where Jesus lay. Refrain

5. Then entered in those wise men three full reverently upon their knee, and offered there in his presence, their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense. Refrain

6. Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heavenly Lord;
that hath made Heaven and earth of nought, and with His blood our life hath bought. Refrain

It Came Upon A Midnight Clear

Hymnal #89

1. It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old, from angels bending near the earth, to touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men, from heaven's all-gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay, to hear the angels sing.
2. Still through the cloven skies they come with peaceful wings unfurled,
and still their heavenly music floats o'er all the weary world;
above its sad and lowly plains bend on hovering wing,
and ever o'er its Babel sounds the blessed angels sing.
3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife the world has suffered long; beneath the heavenly hymn have rolled two thousand years of wrong;
and warring humankind hears not the tidings which they bring;
O hush the noise and cease your strife and hear the angels sing!
4. For lo! the days are hastening on, by prophets seen of old, when with the ever-circling years shall come the time foretold, when peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendors fling, and the whole world give back the song which now the angels sing.

Joy to the World

Hymnal #100

1. Joy to the World! The Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King!
Let every heart prepare him room and heaven and nature sing, and heaven and nature sing, and heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

- 2. Joy to the earth! The Savior reigns!
Let all their songs employ
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy, repeat the sounding joy, Repeat, repeat the sounding joy
- 3. No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground.
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found, far as the curse is found
Far as, far as the curse is found.
- 4. He rules the world with truth and grace
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness
And wonders of his love, and wonders of his love
And wonders, wonders of his love.

The First Lesson Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness-- on them light has shined.
You have multiplied the nation,
 you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
 as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden,
 and the bar across their shoulders,
 the rod of their oppressor,
 you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us, a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
 and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
 Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom.
 He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Lector: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Luke 2:1-20

Gospeler: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

said in unison

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant:

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures.

When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Celebrant:

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace. And grant that we may find our inheritance with all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and for ever.

All: Amen.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

The Lord's Prayer said in unison

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Dearly Departed: Shirley Falk

The funeral for Shirley Falk will be on January 6 at 4pm. Shirley died at 92 and was surrounded by the love of family.

The week after Christmas at St. Thomas Please note that midweek services (Centering Prayer, Noonday Prayer, Intercessory Prayer Vespers) are canceled for the week after Christmas. Intercessory Prayer Vespers will continue on hiatus until Thursday January 12, 2023.

Holiday Boutique final A huge shout out of thanks and gratitude for the generous outpouring of support for the 2022 St. Thomas Holiday Boutique fundraiser! There were folks who baked, stitched, crafted, and donated items and there were many of you who shopped and donated. We also had walk-in traffic. All of those efforts resulted in a donation back to St. Thomas of $2,617.

A special note of thanks to Kristen Kaliski, Fran Hostettler, Daniel Ng, Abby O'Connell, and Donna and Jim Cobb for all their help in execution.

Bravo to this generous community.

In gratitude, Ann Kopischke

General Announcements

New Vestry members have been nominated. They will be confirmed at the Annual meeting next month.

Here they are, to introduce themselves:

Joe Gutierrez:

I'm honored to be nominated to serve for a three-year term on our vestry. I've been at St. Thomas long enough to have seen many changes. This is not the same church that it was when I arrived. Each Sunday is an evolving experience. It's not that we don't know that change is inevitable, but that change is taking place at an increasingly faster rate. It's the rate of change and the emotional agility that it takes to adjust to these rapid changes that makes our church life so interesting.

I was on the Search Committee to select our pastor in 2014 and 2015. I was also on the interviewing sub-committee that interviewed our to-be pastor, Salying, at St. Marks, Palo Alto. I knew at that time, that Salying was the leader that could and would lead us through these challenging times, so full of doubt, wonder, surprise, sadness and joy.

If elected, I look forward to helping you, the vestry and Pastor Salying meet the special challenges that face us. Of the many changes that we have experienced over the years, the restructuring of our campus for leasing and space-sharing is probably the most complex change of all. I know we can do this with grace and love. I would like to be a part of this very special effort with you as your vestry person.

With love and blessings, Joe Gutierrez

Dena Ware:

I felt I found a home from the moment I walked through the doors of St. Thomas just over a year ago! There are so many important ministries here, and I love learning about them, getting to know the people involved, and even participating in them too! Prior to St. Thomas, I attended Episcopal churches in Colorado and Texas, but obviously, St. Thomas is my favorite!! I've lived all over the US, but I've been in Sunnyvale for the past 12 years where I live, work, play, and now worship. I am honored to be considered for the St. Thomas Vestry.

Emilee Wilhelm-Leen:

I'm a mother of two boys and a primary care doctor caring for homeless folks in Santa Clara county. I previously attended St. Bede's in Menlo Park – where I did two tours on the vestry – but joined St. Thomas about five years ago when I realized I could skip the freeway and hop on my bike instead. I'm so glad I did! I treasure the feelings of love and fun that are so unmistakable in the St. Thomas community. Previously at St. Thomas, I served on the Financial Sustainability Committee and I recently joined the choir where they are patient with me as I learn to sing harmony with my fellow altos. I'm looking forward to sitting on vestry in 2023

Delegates to Convention

Stephanie Daugherty, Hugo Lopez-Laguna, Mabel Cheng, and MaryJane Johnson have served as our delegates to convention. Mary Jane is stepping back—thank you MaryJane for your service! - and will be replaced by Sherene Nagarajah. An introductory bio for Sherene will be found in the next bulletins and in the Annual Report. Thank you, Sherene.

Thanksgiving and Memorial Donations to Altar Guild

Our altar guild appreciates your support in making our space holy and beautiful. You can make a donation for fresh flowers on a designated date or a general donation for supplies, like communion wine and bread and oil for the candles. You can make this donation online or by check, with “altar guild” on the memo line. If applicable, please also include (1) the date for the commemoration and (2) the person or occasion to be commemorated.

COVID Protocols update

Masking is now strongly recommended at church services. For those who have vulnerable health issues, our 10:30am services always offer an option to worship from the safety of home. Please stay home if you feel sick.

When the priest celebrates communion, she will always thoroughly wash her hands. She will be unmasked while celebrating communion. The bread and wine will be covered with a linen/pall except during the epiclesis. She will re-mask to distribute communion, since she will come closer than six feet and want to make everyone as comfortable receiving.

Pledges, Offerings & Donations

Your pledges and other donations may always be mailed to the church office and marked to the attention of the Treasurer.

When donating by check, please make the check payable to “St. Thomas Episcopal Church”.

Under our current public health restrictions, we encourage you to mail in your pledges and offerings to the church or use our online donation option.

Online Giving Please look for the “GIVE” option on the main menu bar on the St. Thomas website. It is located on the upper right side of the home page. Once you select “GIVE”, you will be taken to

Zooming in Men's Spiritual Growth Group

Yes! Now you can be there in your pajamas (at least), and therefore sleep a bit longer. But on the other hand we can no longer advertise coffee + if you arrive a bit early. We are now meeting weekly with a standard format, alternating between wondering what the scriptures might be leading us to personally on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays (9-10 AM on your computer), and on the other Saturdays, a check-in and just for sanity's sake (starting at 9 AM). Our Zoom meetings are password protected so you'll need to connect with Chris Schmidt (randischris@gmail.com) if you are new to the group. We invite all men (even those not a part of St. Thomas) to join with us for fellowship and good discussion.

Book Club usually meets once a month from 7 to 8 p.m. in the St. Thomas Library. We are an open book club: All are welcome, whether you have read the book or not. Our next meeting will take place on Monday December 26 using Zoom conferencing, we will meet to discuss Broken (in the best possible way) by Jenny Lawson. With people experiencing anxiety and depression now more than ever, Jenny humanizes what we all face in an all-too-real way, reassuring us that we're not alone and making us laugh while doing it. Please join us—contact Dorothy Furgerson for the Zoom link: drdfurg@mac.com

Gentle Awakening

Music by Benjamin Belew,
Sakagch Akeala
Text by Benjamin Belew,
Sakagch Akeala

Wake us from time's lonely silence
Gently, with love and embrace.
Wake us from time's lonely silence
Gently, with love and embrace.

Frozen and sheltered they lie,
Cuddled in slumber, colder than time.
Blind crows taking flight, falling, crying,
Disappearing under night's snow!

Dying in sleep, while in my dreams.
Breath onto me a kiss;
Sweet, tender, deeper than ice.

Wake us from time's lonely silence
Gently, with love and embrace.
Wake us from time's lonely silence
Gently, with love and embrace.

Moonlight caressing their minds,
Nested in darkness, sailing through time.
Children forsaken cry, fearful, lost,
Quietly drowning under night's snow!

Dying in sleep, without believing.
Breathe onto me a kiss;
Sweet, warmer, thawing this ice.

Wake us from time's lonely silence
Gently, with love and embrace.
Wake us from time's lonely silence
Gently, we pray.

Snowy Night

Music by Benjamin Belew, Sakagch Akeala
Text by Benjamin Belew, Sakagch Akeala, and Linda Sutton

(1)
Snowy Night, hear winter's voices everywhere.
Echoes far, they gently speak and ring the air.
Gifts of joy, brought down to all those meek and fair.
Season comes, abundant with the love and care.
Snowy Night, Snowy Night, Whispers Tonight.
Snowy Night, Snowy Night, Calls us from high.

Snowy Night pours scents of frankincense and myrrh.
Reminding us of Heaven's child's salient birth
Three kings come, they talk of hope that's soon to fleur Riding far to bear this holy tale unearh.
Snowy Night, Snowy Night, Whispers Tonight.
Snowy Night, Snowy Night, Calls us from high.

(3)
Snowy Night, the sound of wings fills out the skies.
With the stars, their golden horns light up the night.
Trumpets Bright! Our souls awake to carols from high.
Angels fly. They guide us through the cold of time.
Snowy Night, Snowy Night, Whispers Tonight.
Snowy Night, Snowy Night, Calls us from high.
